

CORNWALL

Botallack village to the Count House walk

Enjoy this 1-mile walk from the bus stop in Botallack village to the Count House. From here, you can enjoy a walk on the Tin Coast spotting wildlife and learning about the important mining history in this part of Cornwall. You can also enjoy a warm pastry or hot drink from Botallack Count House café.

Information

Address: Queen's Arms, Botallack, Penzance TR19 7QG.

OS map: Explorer map 102

Activity: Walking

Easy

Dog friendly

Full trail: Miles: 0.5 (km: 0.8)

Access: Easy

Duration: 10 mins

Total steps: 4

Start point: Queen's Arms bus stop, Queen's Arms, Botallack, Penzance TR19 7QG

1. From the Queen's Arms bus stop, head north along the road passing The Black Well B&B on your left.
2. When you reach a junction, turn left.
3. Keep right to stay on the track and look out for views of the old mining engine houses and chimney stacks ahead.
4. You will arrive at Botallack, and the Count House will be on your right.

End point: Botallack Count House, Botallack Mine, St Just, Penzance TR19 7QQ