

CORNWALL

Trencrom Hill trail

Climb to the top of 175m-high Trencrom Hill for far-reaching views across the landscape. Although it's not the highest hill in West Cornwall the route to the top offers a glimpse of some prehistoric archaeology and history as well as the chance to spot wildlife along the way.

i Worth a trip from Godolphin

Why not combine your visit to Godolphin with a brisk walk up Trencrom Hill? It's about a 20-minute drive between the two places.

Information

Address: Trencrom Hill, near Hayle, Cornwall. Nearest postcode: TR27 6NJ

OS map: Explorer 102, Landranger 203

Activity: Walking

Moderate: Undulating route with steep inclines. For further details, please see Terrain section.

Dog friendly: Dogs are welcome but paths pass through areas where livestock graze, so please keep dogs under close control and pick up any dog waste.

Full trail: Miles: 1 (km: 1.6)

Access: Challenging

Duration: 30 mins

Terrain

A trail along uneven paths on natural surfaces. There are some steep inclines.

Total steps: 4

Start point: Trencrom Hill car park. Grid ref: SW517359

1. From Trencrom Hill car park head west towards Badger's Croft, following the track.
2. Take the path on the right, skirting the hill.
3. Ascend to the top of the hill from the north. At the top of Trencrom Hill take in the views stretching across North Cornwall to Godrevy and towards Rosewall Hill to the west.
4. Follow the track down and round back to the car park. On the way back, keep an eye out for traces of mining history such as shafts.

End point: Trencrom Hill car park. Grid ref: SW517359