

CORNWALL

Rocky Valley walk

This gentle valley walk follows a stream which starts life high up on Venn Down, 820ft (250m) above sea level. From there it meanders through fields before tumbling dramatically through rocky bluffs and deep clefts all the way to the open ocean in the bay near Bossiney.

Information

Address: Rocky Valley, Bossiney, near Tintagel, Cornwall, PL34 0BB

OS map: Landranger 200

Activity: Walking

Easy: An easy walk with some gentle climbs and descents. For further details, please see Terrain section.

Dog friendly

Full trail: Miles: 1 (km: 1.6)

Access: Challenging

Duration: 30 mins - 40 mins

Terrain

Rocky Valley is a mix of rough paths through woods and along cliffs. Most of the walk is on a gradient, but there are no steep sections.

Total steps: 3

Start point: Lay-by near Rocky Valley, grid ref: SX073891

1. Cross the road and follow the path sign down the drive for Trevillet Mill.
2. Cross the footbridge and enter the woodlands and walk until you reach the ruined mill buildings. Keep a lookout for the Bronze Age carvings of maze patterns on the rockface here.
3. Cross another footbridge and follow the streamside path down to the cliff top. Return the same way you came.

End point: Lay-by near Rocky Valley, grid ref: SX073891