

CORNWALL

Trelissick to Roundwood Quay walk

Trelissick sits on its own peninsula with water on three sides. This walk follows the River Fal and offers contrasting views between narrow creeks and wide expanses of water.

Information

Address: Trelissick Garden, Feock, Truro, Cornwall, TR3 6QL

OS map: Landranger 204; Explorer 105

Activity: Walking

Easy: Footpaths and gravel pathways through woodland. For further details, please see Terrain section.

Dog friendly: Dogs are welcome on this walk and in the outdoor seating area of Trelissick café. Please keep dogs on leads if livestock present. Dog bins halfway around and at the beginning/end.

Full trail: Miles: 4.0 (km: 6.4)

Duration: 1 hour 20 mins - 2 hours

Terrain

Footpaths and gravel pathways through woodland. Fairly easy terrain, with one short, steep climb at the end.

Total steps: 8

Start point: Trelissick car park, grid ref: SW835396

1. From the car park, have a look at the estate map before walking past the cattle grid into the parkland, with the sea view in front of you. Walk towards the water and you'll get to the beach.
2. With the beach in front of you, turn to the left and you'll find a metal gate. Go through the gate and this will lead you to the woodland walk.
3. Eventually you'll pass a path down to the ferry pontoon on the right and a small building that leads to the garden (this entrance is open Easter to September and various dates in winter). Carefully cross the road to reach the woodland walk on the other side.
4. After a while you'll find a junction in the path. Go to the right, following signs and the path all the way to Roundwood Quay.
5. At Roundwood Quay retrace your steps back to step 4.
6. When returning to step 4, go uphill and follow the zig-zag path through mixed woodland up to the road.
7. Before crossing the road, ensure dogs are on leads and take extreme care when crossing to the gate on the opposite side by the Old Lodge. Once over the road, go straight on until you find a tarmac drive.
8. At the drive, go through the gate to the side of the cattle grid and follow the drive until you find yourself back at the car park where you began.

End point: Trelissick car park, grid ref: SW835396