Total stages: 6

Start point: Lee Bay National Trust car park EX34 8LR

1. From Lee Bay National Trust car park head towards Lee Beach and turn left at the road. Follow the road which will take you up a steep hill. On the corner join the footpath heading out along the South West Coast Path.
2. Follow the South West Coast path, this will take you past Sandy Cove with lots of undulation and then down a steep zig zag path to Bennett's Mouth.
3. Continue along the South West Coast Path which head up a steep slope away from Bennett's Mouth, keep following this until you reach Bull Point Lighthouse.
4. At the lighthouse, turn left onto a tarmac road and follow this passing through a stock gate (make sure to close this behind you). Continue straight and at the finger post, follow directions to Damage Barton. This track will take you down a steep windy path to the bottom of the valley.
5. Turn right and follow the stream through the woods and cross over a footbridge, head up the slope on the other side emerging into fields at the top. Head through a gate and continue straight through the field to another gate. When leaving this field, turn right and head along the track.
6. At the junction turn left, follow a finger post marked Footpath to Lee and head over the stile. Follow this path downhill and up the other side. When you reach the road, continue straight and head down the hill, following the road back to the car park.
