

DEVON

Bigbury and Burgh Island views walk to Ayrmer Cove

This short, gentle walk takes you through picturesque farmland to a spot above Ayrmer Cove that's perfect for a picnic. There are impressive views of Bigbury and Burgh Island, with its famous art deco hotel, and a chance to see rare birds and flowers.

Information

Address: Ringmore, Kingsbridge, Devon, TQ7 4HW

OS map: Explorer OL20

Activity: Walking

Easy: The route is on flat and easy ground. For further details, see Terrain section.

Dog friendly: Dogs are welcome but must be kept on a lead.

Full trail: Miles: 1 (km: 1.6)

Access: Easy

Duration: 30 mins - 40 mins

Terrain

The walk is on level ground and makes for an easy stroll out and back. Take care when near the cliff edge.

Total steps: 5

Start point: Ringmore National Trust car park, grid ref SX649456

1. From the car park, follow the path waymarked to Toby's Point, through the bank and out towards the coast.
2. Continue along the track until you arrive at a field gate. Take the path to the right. This path has been levelled with a solid base to provide an easy access route to the beautiful Devon coastline.
3. Continue along this path. Stop at the resting points and enjoy the views across the valley to Bigbury and Burgh Island.
4. Towards the end of the path, you'll see a dry-stone wall on your right-hand side. In summer, adders often bask here in the sun.
5. At the end of the path, take in the stunning views down to Ayrmer Cove and out over to Burgh Island. The bench here is a good spot for a picnic and to fully soak up your surroundings and spot local wildlife. Return to your starting point at the car park by retracing your steps.

End point: Ringmore National Trust car park, grid ref SX649456