

NORTHERN IRELAND

River walk at The Argory

Follow the River Blackwater around the estate and cross the industrial-age Bond's Bridge. Look out for kingfishers darting across the water during your walk.

Information

Address: 144 Derrycaw Road, Moy, Dungannon, County Armagh, BT71 6NA

OS map: Sheet 19

Activity: Walking

Easy: Mixed surfaces including woodland and riverside. For further details, please see Terrain section.

Dog friendly: Dogs (on leads) welcome in gardens and wider estate. Owners must clean up after their dogs.

Full trail: Miles: 2 (km: 3.2)

Access: Challenging

Duration: 40 mins

Terrain

There are a variety of surfaces including woodland and riverside. During winter months it is advisable to wear suitable footwear.

Total steps: 5

Start point: The Argory car park, 144 Derrycaw Road, Moy, Dungannon, County Armagh BT71 6NA. Grid ref: NV983177.

1. From the car park follow the sign for Bond's bridge/ferry path. This starts at the bottom of the car park.
2. At the end of the path there is a set of large steps. At the top of the steps turn left and go through the kissing gate onto the river bank.
3. Follow the path along the river and keep an eye out for fluttering kingfishers. They lazily fly over water and swoop down to spear fish with their sharp beaks.
4. As the path comes to an end along the river, turn left onto the causeway that runs between the meadows. At the end of the causeway you will approach Meadow Cottage.
5. Turn left again and follow the avenue back to the car park.

End point: The Argory car park, 144 Derrycaw Road, Moy, Dungannon, County Armagh BT71 6NA. Grid ref: NV983177.