Full trail: Miles: 3 (km: 4.8)

Duration: 1 hour 30 mins

Terrain

Uneven sections with some steps, kissing gates and stiles. Field paths may become marshy following wet weather. Take care on roads. Livestock (and their droppings) are present, along with some water hazards (ponds and ditches).

Total steps: 9

Start point: Packwood House car park, grid ref: SP173723

1. Turn left out of the car park and walk along Packwood Lane with the house on your right, until you reach a junction with Rising Lane.
2. At the junction, take the footpath on the right and follow the waymarked posts across the fields to the lane.
3. Cross the lane to join a footpath on the opposite side, following this along a track. Before the farmhouse, turn left to continue along the path, taking care to walk to the right of the field and over the stile hidden in a hedgerow. Walk across the fields to the road, keeping the pond to your left.
4. Turn right along the road for a short way before turning right along Glasshouse Lane, signposted for Packwood.
5. Follow this lane, passing Fetherston House on the right. Ignore the first footpath on the right and continue on to the next, just after Packwood Hall.
6. Follow this footpath around the Hall to St Giles Church.
7. Walk to the far right of the churchyard to a kissing gate towards the end of the row of cottages, signed the Millennium Way. Head diagonally left through the gap in the hedge way and straight onto Packwood Lane.
8. Turn right along the lane, and where the road forks take the footpath on the left, back across the park to join Chestnut Avenue.
9. Turn right along the Avenue to take you back to the front of the house.
